AND NOW, this 8th day of August, 2005, in accordance with the supervised release revocation hearing held this date, the Court finds that defendant violated the conditions of supervised release charged in the Petition On Supervised Release (Document No. 33). Specifically, the Court finds that defendant violated the terms of supervision set forth in the Order of Court of May 16, 2005, by (1) using cocaine, barbiturates, benzodiazepines and opiates, as evidenced by defendant's urine specimens of May 21, 2005 and June 27, 2005, (2) failing to attend drug and alcohol sessions twice per week, as directed by the probation office, (3) failing to attend the "Living Sober" inpatient program, as directed by the probation office, (4) leaving defendant's place of residence for reasons other than employment and other activities approved in advance by the probation officer, and (5) failing to refrain from the use of alcohol. Defendant acknowledged his violation of each of these conditions on the record. These violations constitute Grade C violations under U.S.S.G. § 7B1.1, which in conjunction with a criminal history category of II results in a guidelines advisory sentencing range of 6 to 12 months under U.S.S.G. § 7B1.4.
